PREFACE.

THIS Catalogue has been compiled on similar lines to those previously issued by the Libraries Committee. In it the books have been entered (1) under the name of author; (2) under the subject or subjects to which they refer; (3) under the first word of the title not an article, when the subject is not clearly set forth by such title.

Classes F, FICTION, and J, JUVENILE LITERATURE, are exceptions to the above rule. To economise space, and for the convenience of borrowers, these have been grouped under their respective headings and entered in alphabetical and numerical sequence under the names of authors, thus forming keys to the INDICATOR. The title entries of the books in these two classes will be found in their proper places. Before filling in a form for a book in Class F or J, the borrower MUST EXAMINE THE INDICATOR to ascertain if the book required is available. The numbers shown on BLUE are IN, those on RED are OUT. The INDICATOR not being used for other classes, the Assistant will, upon application, inform borrowers if any particular book is on the shelves.

The subject-entry being considered of the greatest importance, the fullest particulars have invariably been given under that heading; in many cases short explanatory notes as to the scope of a work have also been added. Where it was possible to do so, the subject-headings have been sub-divided.

The period covered by many histories, etc., has been given, and the contents of some important works of a composite character have, to a large extent, been analysed and entered under the subjects to which they refer. The contents of many important sets have also been printed. Bibliographies have also been noted.

Pseudonymous works are entered under the pseudonym in italic; this is followed by the real name when known, and a reference is made from the real to the pen-name.

Anonymous works are entered under their titles and subjects; also under the names of Authors when known.

Compound names will be found under the second part, and a reference from the first part is given.

The prefix "Saint" is retained in surnames as (Saint Victor), the names of places or buildings as (St. David's, St. Paul's Cathedral), and titles as (St. Cecilia; a cantata), but is omitted in all cases of canonization. M' and Mc are arranged as though spelt Mac in full. Names of foreign authors commencing de, von, van, will be found under the part next following.

The Library has been classified as under:—

A. Theology, Philosophy, Ecclesiastical History.
B. Biography, History, Correspondence.
C. Antiquities, Geography, Topography, Travel.
D. Law, Politics, Social Science, Education.
E. Fine and Useful Arts, Science, Natural History.
F. Prose Fiction.
G. Poetry, Drama, Classics, Language, Literature.
H. Magazines, Miscellaneous Literature.
J. Juvenile Literature.
K. Musical Scores.

The following abbreviations have been used:—Abp., Archbishop; bibl., Bibliography; Bp., Bishop; ed., Editor or edited; il., Illustrated; port., Portrait; trans., Translator or translated; v., Volume.

I have to acknowledge the help I have received in the compilation of this Catalogue from the Sub-Librarian, Mr. H. P. Dinelli.

S. MARTIN.

THE CARNEGIE LIBRARY.

SINCE the Public Libraries Act was adopted in 1887, successive Library Commissioners and Library Committees have been desirous of establishing a Central Library in the neighbourhood of the Broadway, but this desire could not be gratified owing to the want of means.

The original Library Rate was limited to ONE HALFPENNY in the £, but in 1895, owing to the generous offer of Mr. J. Passmore Edwards to build a Library at Shepherds Bush, the Ratepayers voted for the maximum rate of One Penny.

In 1901 the Libraries Committee erected and furnished at a cost of £500 out of current revenue, a temporary Reading Room on land in Brook Green Road, granted by the Borough Council

In July, 1902, Dr. Andrew Carnegie most generously offered to give £10,000 to erect a Central Library for Hammersmith provided the cost of the site was not a burden on the Penny Rate. The Borough Council, with the permission of the Local Government Board, kindly granted a site in Brook Green Road, having a frontage of about 150 feet. The building was erected from the plans of Mr. H. T. Hare, F.R.I.B.A.

The front elevation is designed to indicate the objects of such a building. The leading features are large statues of Shakespeare and of Milton; also figures sculptured in low relief representing Art, Science, Literature, and Commerce. The Royal Arms under each pediment are respectively those of Edward III., who is said to have leased Pallinswick Manor (now Ravenscourt Park) during the 14th century for his favourite, Alice Perrers, and of the reigning monarch, Edward VII.

Internally the Library has a most striking appearance. It is well-planned, very commodious, and exceedingly well-lighted. The decorations are in good taste. The furniture and fittings are of handsome design and substantial character, and are made of fumed wainscot oak.

On the ground floor are the Lending Library with ample counter space, and shelving for 22,000 volumes; Newsroom; Magazine Room; Boys' Room; Workroom; Staff Room, etc. On the first floor are the Reference Library; Stack Room with shelving for 10,000 volumes, and Committee Room. In the basement are the heating chamber, and a room for storing newspapers, etc.

The Reference Library is a handsome room with vaulted ceiling. The central portion is lighted from the top and there is also a large window at each end. These windows, with those on the staircase, are filled with stained glass, all of which has been presented. The West window contains the Borough Arms and those of Sir Nicholas Crisp. The East window, presented by Rev. R. J. Walker, M.A., son of the High Master of St. Paul's School, contains in the centre a full length portrait of Dean Colet, to the left the Colet Arms, and to the right those of the Donor. The staircase windows contain medallion portraits of Bacon, Chaucer, Erasmus, and Spenser. All the stained glass is extremely good and adds much to the interest and dignity of the building.

It has been the aim of the Committee to make the Library reflect, in some measure, the past history of the Borough, and with this object in view it has selected the names of twelve former inhabitants who had achieved distinction in the world of Art, Literature, or Science. These, with the dates of birth and death, have been placed on the walls of the Reference Library.

The following are the names:—

LITERATURE.

Henry Fielding, 1707-1754. Captain Frederick Marryat, R.N., 1792-1848. John Kaye, D.D., Bishop of Lincoln, 1785-1853. Charles Reade, M.A., D.C.L., 1814-1884. William Morris, 1834-1896.

ART.

Thomas Worlidge, 1700-1766. Giovanni B. Cipriani, R.A., 1727-1785. J. Mallord W. Turner, R.A., 1775-1851.

SCIENCE.

Sir Samuel Morland, Bart., 1625-1695. Sir Francis Ronalds, F.R.S., 1788-1873. John Radcliffe, M.D., 1650-1714. Sir Charles Wheatstone, F.R.S., D.C.L., LL.D., 1802-1875.

Some of the descendants of these distinguished persons have shown their appreciation of the Committee's action by presenting to the Library a portrait or other memento, and the Library Committee would gladly welcome any similar gifts.

The Committee desires to record its sincere thanks to the generous donor, Dr. Andrew Carnegie, for his munificent gift, by means of which a Library has been erected that will always be a source of pleasure and profit to present and future citizens of this large and important Borough. The Committee further desires to thank the following gentlemen who have generously contributed to make this handsome and commodious Library more complete from an artistic point of view:—

Rev. R. J. Walker, M.A., East window of Reference Library.
Alderman Pascall, Borough Arms in West window of Reference Library.
Gery Milner-Gibson-Cullum, Esq., The Crisp Arms in West window of Reference Library.
Alderman T. Chamberlen, J.P., Medallion of Chaucer.
Alderman Acton Phillips, Medallion of Bacon.
Councillor J. C. Platt, Medallion of Erasmus.
W. J. Smith, Esq., Medallion of Spenser.
The Ven. Archdeacon Kaye, Steel engraving of Bishop Kaye—framed—and a bust of Bishop Kaye.
C. L. Reade, Esq., A portrait in oils of Charles Reade—framed.
C. Mallord W. Turner, Esq., A proof copy of the "Turner" medal, suitably mounted and framed.
The weather vane, presented by Councillor John Howell, was removed from a house on Brook Green, formerly inhabited by Mark Lemon.

HAMMERSMITH PUBLIC LIBRARIES.

CARNEGIE (CENTRAL) LIBRARY.

Rules and Regulations.

GENERAL.

1.—The Chief Librarian shall have charge of the Libraries and shall be responsible for the safe custody thereof and of all property of the Borough Council contained therein.

2.—The Reading Rooms shall be opened on weekdays from 9 a.m. to 10 p m., except on CHRISTMAS DAY, GOOD FRIDAY, BANK HOLIDAYS, and such other days as the Committee may specially determine. On Sundays the Reading Rooms at Passmore Edwards Library, Shepherd's Bush, are open from 3 till 9 p.m.

3.—The Boys' Reading Rooms shall be opened daily from 5 p.m. to 9 p.m., except on the above-mentioned days. On Saturdays and school holidays the hours shall be from 10.30 a.m. to 9 p.m.

4.—Children under the age of 14 years shall not be admitted to the General Reading Rooms.

5.—No person shall be allowed to retain a Newspaper for more than TEN MINUTES, or a Magazine for more than FIFTEEN MINUTES, after the same has been asked for by another reader.

6.—Silence must be maintained, and persons shall not be permitted to sleep, smoke, spit, partake of refreshments, or bring DOGS, CYCLES OR PERAMBULATORS on the Library premises.

7.—The public shall not be allowed within the enclosed portions of the Libraries, except by permission of the Chief Librarian.

8.—Any person who shall commit a breach of any of these rules and regulations shall be liable to be removed forthwith from the Library under the direction of the Chief Librarian, and to be excluded for such a period as the Libraries Committee may determine.

LENDING LIBRARIES.

1.—The Lending Libraries shall be open to the public every week-day, from 10.30 a.m. to 9 p.m., except on WEDNESDAYS, CHRISTMAS DAY, GOOD FRIDAY, BANK HOLIDAYS, and one week commencing June 1st, when they are closed, and such other days as the Libraries Committee may specially direct.

2.—Books can be borrowed for home reading by persons resident in, or rated for, the Borough of Hammersmith. Any resident who is enrolled on the current Parliamentary or County Council Registers of the Borough shall be entitled to borrow books, but will be required to sign a voucher to obtain a Borrower's Ticket. Other persons residing in the Borough may obtain Borrowers' Tickets after signing a voucher which must also be countersigned by a RATEPAYER whose name appears upon either of the aforesaid Registers. Children under 11 years of age shall not be allowed to borrow books without special permission of the Chief Librarian.

3.—The voucher, duly filled up and signed, must be delivered to the Chief Librarian or his assistant, and if found to be satisfactory the Borrower's Ticket, entitling to the use of the Libraries, will be ready on the third day after the receipt of the voucher. An extra ticket to be used for books other than Fiction can also be obtained on application.

4.—Tickets are not TRANSFERABLE and must be RENEWED ANNUALLY from the date of issue. Borrowers losing their Tickets must give immediate notice in writing to the Chief Librarian, as they or their Guarantors will be held responsible for any books taken out in their names.

5.—Borrowers may use either of the Lending Libraries, but no books will be issued unless the Borrower produces his Ticket. The Librarian is authorised to refuse books to messengers whom he may consider unfit to take proper care of them.

6.—Borrowers leaving the Borough or ceasing to use the Libraries, are required to return their Tickets in order to have them cancelled. When a Guarantor shall desire to withdraw from any undertaking on behalf of a Borrower, he must give notice thereof in writing to the Chief Librarian, who will give the necessary release as soon as he shall have ascertained that no liability exists.

7.—Any change in the residence of a Borrower or the Guarantor must be intimated to the Librarian within one week of such change.

8.—The time allowed for reading a book is FOURTEEN DAYS (with a few exceptions) from the date of issue. In default, the Borrower or his Guarantor shall pay a fine of TWO PENCE per week, or part of a week for the period the book is detained beyond that time. When a book is kept more than FOUR WEEKS a printed notice shall be sent to the Borrower, who will be required to defray all expenses connected therewith.

9.—All books borrowed must be returned to this Library on or before the 31st May, or the 30th May if the 31st is either a Sunday or a Wednesday, for the Annual Stocktaking. In default thereof a fine of ONE SHILLING will be enforced in each case. The issue of books shall cease three days before the Libraries are closed.

10.—Borrowers desiring to retain books beyond fourteen days must apply for a renewal, which will be granted if the work is not in demand ; in all cases the volumes must be brought to the Libraries to be re-dated. BOOKS IN CLASSES F AND J CANNOT BE RENEWED OR INTERCHANGED BETWEEN FRIENDS OR MEMBERS OF THE SAME HOUSEHOLD, NOR CAN ANY BOOKS BE EXCHANGED ON THE DAY OF ISSUE.

11.—Before applying at the counter for a book, Borrowers are required to fill up an application form with the catalogue number and letter of book, also number of Borrower's Ticket, Date and Signature. Before the form is presented for a book in classes F or J the INDICATOR must be examined to ascertain if the volume in request is available. The numbers appearing on BLUE show the volumes that are IN.

12.—Any damage done to books will be charged to the last Borrower. Borrowers should therefore examine the books on receiving them, and call attention to any fault in order that they may not be charged with the same. SPECIAL CARE MUST BE TAKEN TO PROTECT BOOKS IN WET WEATHER.

13.—If a Borrower shall not bring back to the Library from which it was borrowed, within due time, any book lent to him, or shall refuse or neglect to pay on demand any fine, or the amount of any loss or injury for which he is responsible under these rules, then such fine, the amount of such injury, or the value of such book, shall be a debt due from such Borrower, and recoverable either from him or his surety, or from both of them jointly, at the discretion of the Libraries Committee, by process of law.

14—Borrowers finding a difficulty in obtaining any particular book, can have the same reserved for one day by payment of one penny.

15.—The Librarian shall have power to refuse books to any Borrower who has neglected to comply with the Rules and Regulations of the Libraries, such Borrower having the right of appeal to the Libraries Committee.

REFERENCE LIBRARIES.

1.—The Reference Libraries shall be open to the public on week-days, from 10 a.m. to 10 p.m., except on CHRISTMAS DAY, GOOD FRIDAY, BANK HOLIDAYS, and such other days as the Committee may specially determine.

2.—To obtain the use of a book a "Reader's Voucher" must be signed and handed to the Librarian or his assistant to whom the volume must be returned. Any books in the Lending Libraries, except those in Classes F and J may be obtained for use in the Reference Libraries, but they must be given up if required for lending out.

3.—Readers will be held responsible for any loss or damage done to books issued to them. The pages and illustrations must not be marked or injured, the use of ink and tracing are not permitted and no book shall be removed from the Reference Libraries.

Special attention is called to the following clauses of 24 and 25 Vic. cap. 97, sect. 89:—

" Whoever shall unlawfully and maliciously destroy or damage any Book, Manuscript, Print,
" Statue, Bust or Vase, or any other article or thing kept for the purpose of Art, Science, or
" Literature, in any Library, which is either at all times or from time to time open for admission
" to the public, shall be guilty of misdemeanour, and being convicted thereof, shall be liable to be
" imprisoned for a term not exceeding six months, with or without hard labour, and if a male
" under the age of sixteen years, with or without whipping."
" Any person found committing any offence against this Act may be immediately apprehended
" without a warrant by any Peace Officer. . . . and forthwith taken before some neighbouring
" Justice of the Peace to be dealt with according to law."

These Rules are subject to alteration as the Borough Council may determine.

FICTION.

Note.—The following list of novels in Class F has been arranged in alphabetical and numerical order, thus forming a key to the Indicator. Non-fictional works by authors in this list, that are in the Library, will be found in their proper places in the catalogue. The title entry for every book in this list is also inserted in the catalogue.

Borrowers desiring to vary their reading of Fiction will find a large number of good books in other classes; the newest additions to the Library will be on view in the showcase on the counter when available for readers.

Before filling in the issue slip for a book in Class F or J, borrowers must examine the Indicator to ascertain if the book required is available. The numbers shown on Blue are in.

For a concise analytical description of many of the books in the following list, the reader is referred to "A descriptive guide to the best fiction, British and American," by Ernest A. Baker, M.A., a copy of which may be seen in the Reference Library.
